In Montana.

BOZEMAN, MONT., July 4.—To-day is the 4th of July and I thought I would write a little letter to my good old home democratic paper. This leaves a portion of Montana covered with snow. It is a curiosity for a Kentuckian to see snow on July 4th. I am living about five miles from a fine little city of about 5,000. Many different kinds of people. This valley is about 75 miles long and 40 miles wide and is rich and level. We don't raise any corn here at all, but lots of fine wheat, oats and barley. Farmers say if nothing happens they will have an average of 40 bushels to the acre. Oats make from 50 to 125 bushels to the acre and potatoes, no end to them. Well Mr. Editor, I will not detain you longer. I see in your paper that my father is a candidate for jailer. Tell him when you see him to fight them to a finish. Be sure and send my paper. I remain a true democrat until Gabriel blows his horn. Yours truly, T. HAYES.

No man or woman in the State will hesitate to speak well of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets after once trying them. They always produce a pleasant movement of the bowels, improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion. For sale by Craig & Hoeker, Stanford, Ky.

The average young woman doesn't wish to see her 30th birthday; yet when she has seen it she would like to see it again.—Smart Set.

A company of infantry will also be on duty at Cynthiana during the trials.

Brutally Tortured.

A case came to light that for persistent and unmerciful torture has perhaps never been equaled. Joe Golobick of Colusa, Cal., writes: "For 15 years I endured insufferable pain from Rheumatism and nothing relieved me though I tried everything known. I came across Electric Bitters and its the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles of it completely relieved and cured me. Just as good for Liver and Kidney troubles and general debility. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by all druggists."

Some people in this country have been making money fast for several years and are spending it lavishly.

Democratic Ticket.

For Governor,

J. C. W. BECKHAM.

For Lieutenant Governor,

W. P. THORNE.

For Auditor of State,

S. W. HAGER.

For Treasurer,

H. M. BOSWORTH.

For Attorney General,

N. B. HAYS.

For Secretary of State,

H. V. McCHESNEY.

For Superintendent of Public Instruction,

J. H. FUQUA.

For Commissioner of Agriculture,

HUBERT VREELAND.

For Clerk of Court of Appeals,

J. MORGAN CHINN.

For Railroad Commissioner,

C. C. M'CHORD

For Circuit Judge,

W. CONN BELL.

For Commonwealth's Attorney,

CHARLES A. HARDIN.

For Circuit Clerk,

J. F. HOLDAM

For Representative,

J. M. ALVERSON

THE following is what Judge M. C. Sautley had to say before the State Central Committee at Frankfort, after being informed that Hon. W. C. Bell had been declared the nominee for circuit judge in this district, which shows what kind of a democrat he is: "Mr. Chairman: The formal communication of your committee that by its deliberate and well considered action my honorable opponent, Mr. Bell, has been declared to be the nominee of our party, conveys to me no message of news. I thank you for that courtesy which suggested that I be invited to renew before you my pledge of devotion to our party principles and loyalty to its organization. More than 30 years ago I bent my knee at the altar of the democratic party, and since that act of primal homage to doctrine, to party order and discipline, I may be pardoned for saying I have followed the party flag whenever and wherever it has lead. This consistent and unbroken devotion shall furnish my best guaranty of what I shall do in the future. W. C. Bell is personally and politically my friend. I pledge to him my cordial support."

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL is for Hon. W. Conn Bell for circuit judge and Hon. Charles A. Hardin for Commonwealth's attorney and it proposes to do all in its power to elect those gentlemen. They are the nominees of the democratic party, are worthy of the offices they aspire, are themselves democrats without taint of suspicion and there is no doubt of their election if democrats do their duty. Of course this paper preferred its townsmen, Judge M. C. Sautley and Hon. John Sam Owsley, Jr., and was disappointed when their defeat was announced, but it has no kick coming and will cheerfully support the gentlemen from Harrodsburg as it would have the distinguished citizens of Stanford who aspired to the offices. So here's to Bell and Hardin, who can and will defeat any republicans who put their heads up and who will prove creditable alike to themselves and the good old democratic party.

BELKNAP is the lamb for slaughter. He was nominated for governor on the first ballot by the republican convention in Louisville last evening. Gov. Bradley was the choice of the convention and could have easily won the empty honor if he had wanted it. A. E. Willson's name did not go before the convention.

THE speech of Commonwealth Attorney J. S. Owsley, Jr., before the State Central Committee at Frankfort Tuesday is highly complimented by those who heard it. He gracefully accepted his defeat and pledged his time and means toward the election of his successful opponent and Mr. Bell.

THE amount of binder twine used is enormous. It took nearly 100,000 tons to tie up last year's wheat crop and this year many think it will run up to 110,000 to 120,000 tons. It was formerly a product of the cordage makers, and the cornering of binder twine was the immediate occasion of the collapse of the cordage trust, which precipitated the panic of 10 years ago. Of late years the manufacturers of harvesting machinery have been making binder twine in order to protect their customers, but the harvester manufacturers are in a combine themselves now and trying to gouge the farmer to the point of giving up the last pound of flesh.

THE school per capita this year will be $2.00, a steady increase since the present administration began and an increase of 28 cents over last year. To pay off the State debt, increase the school per capita and restore order where chaos reigned, are reasons sufficient for the re-election of a democratic ticket, even if there were not a thousand and one other reasons.

WE rise to call the attention of the Advocate and INTERIOR JOURNAL to their candidate's list, which needs revision. We will all get together now. The trial heats are over.—Harrodsburg Herald. Look at our list this morning and see if it suits you. If it does not, wire us at our expense and we may try again.

THE republicans paid W. C. Owens off by making him temporary chairman of their convention. Not much reward for a fellow who used to be as hot a democrat as Maj. Owens had people thinking he was.

THE Adair News is tickled because Ex-Lient. Gov. J. R. Hindman has cast his lot with the republicans. It says it took him seven years to make up his mind where to go after he left the party that made him.

POLITICAL.

The State campaign will be directed from Louisville.

Rev. R. F. Mills, prohibition candidate for Representative in Clinton county, has withdrawn from the race.

Former Gov. McMillen, of Tennessee, says he has no idea of quitting the race for Senator and that he is in the fight to stay.

Judge James Gourley, of Beattyville, has announced for the republican nomination for circuit judge in the Breathitt district.

All's well that ends well. The warring factions in the 13th judicial district have sheathed their swords and will unite with Sautley and Owsley in giving Bell and Hardin a rousing majority for judge and commonwealth's attorney.—Lexington Democrat.

The State Central Committee has recommended to Gov. Beckham for election commissioner for the State board, Hon. Charles B. Poyntz, of Mayesville. He is a splendid gentleman and one of the best democrats in the State.

The republicans of Breathitt county adopted the following resolution at their convention last Saturday: "We condemn and point with shame to the lawlessness existing in Breathitt county and pledge our efforts to restore law and order in our midst, and to secure this end we call upon Charles Terry to make the race for sheriff of this county at the ensuing November election and pledge to him our undivided support."

After the Sautley-Bell contest the State Committee took up the Bush-Cook contest from the Calloway-Lyon judicial district. The committee decided in favor of Judge Cook, making him the party nominee. It also decided against the committeeman appointed in that district by Central Committeeman Clem J. Whittemore, and in favor of the old committee. The action was by vote of 9 to 2. Whittemore and Griffith being the minority. The committee then adjourned.

Judge M. C. Sautley and Hon. John Sam Owsley, by going before the Committee of their own accord, and in elegant speeches endorsing the nominees for Circuit Judge and Commonwealth Attorney in this district, have endeared themselves to the hearts of the voters of the community. It was an action, however, that was to be expected from men of such known democracy, and their friends and supporters will follow their example. The News is for either of them for anything they desire in the future from the people.—Danville News.

President Burris A. Jenkins, of Kentucky University, Lexington, will be the guest of Rev. J. W. Hagin from Saturday until Monday and will preach at the Christian church Sunday morning and evening.

The Sunday school teachers and superintendents of New Jersey have declared war on Santa Claus. If these good people had come into the world as Jersey mosquitoes the loss to mankind would not have been irreparable.—Courier Journal.

Craig Gragg, another one, who is charged with assaulting the woman he was living with as his wife, has been captured and is being held in Tennessee, awaiting requisition. As illustrative of the state of mind of the Stanford delegation immediately after the decision at Frankfort in the Saufley-Bell contest, the following story is being told. A party of about a dozen of our leading citizens were waiting in gloomy silence at the station for their train. At the time there was being held in Frankfort a convention of the undertakers of the State. A newsboy sat down by Col. Welch and asked: "Are you all going home?" The colonel responded that they were. After critically surveying the crowd a moment the newsboy again enquired: "You all are the undertakers ain't you?" "No, my boy," responded Col. Welch, "we are not the undertakers; we are the undertook."

MCKINNEY—W. Frank McKinney, deputy sheriff and one of the best known and best liked young men in Stanford, died at 9:50 last night of heart trouble after an illness of several weeks. He is survived by a wife and three little children, an aged mother, a sister and brother, all of whom are heart-broken over his demise. His death is one of the saddest in our recollection and a gloom is cast over this entire section by the announcement of it. When Mr. McKinney was informed that he could not get well he expressed his willingness and readiness to meet his maker. He was a consistent member of the Presbyterian church, a good citizen and one who will be sadly missed in Stanford. The burial will occur in Buffalo Cemetery at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning after short services at the grave.

YESTERDAY'S Lexington Democrat says: President R. H. Bronaugh, of the Crab Orchard Fair, is in the city to interest the running men in his meeting, to occur July 22-25. The company has the finest half-mile track in the State, and the races are always a feature of the excellent exhibition.

THE Cumberland Valley Land Co. held its annual meeting at the First National Bank Wednesday and elected the following officers: President, Vincent Boreing; Secretary and Treasurer, J. S. Hocker. Directors, Vincent Boreing, Robert Boyd, J. S. Hocker, John Fox, Jr., James W. Fox, Forestus Reid, W. P. Walton, J. A. Craft, J. W. Hayden. The company has now on hand about $15,000 in cash and the directors will meet Aug. 12, this city, to declare a dividend.

THERE was general disappointment when it was made known here Tuesday noon that Judge M. C. Saufley and Hon. John Sam Owsley Jr., had been defeated before the State Central Committee. There was little or no kicking, however, and democrats generally expressed themselves as ready and willing to go to work for Messrs. Bell and Hardin. They are the regular nominees now and he is a poor democrat indeed who will not rally to their support and do all in his power to help carry their banner to victory this fall.

THE Lexington Democrat has this to say about one of Stanford's good citizens: Hon. R. C. Warren, of Lincoln county, who was in the city last evening returning from Frankfort, told a reporter of The Democrat that he was a candidate for Congress and in the race to stay and win. Mr. Warren is one of those simon pure democrats who serves his party early and late and votes and works for its tickets. He has done more perhaps, than any other man in his section to advance the cause of democracy and its candidates and got less for himself than anybody, and now he thinks and hundreds of his friends too, that his time has come. Mr. Warren is admirably equipped for the office he seeks and would do credit to the old eighth district.

LINCOLN county took its first steps Wednesday looking to its representation at the St. Louis World's Fair through the Kentucky Exhibit Association. A display of its products will be made and it will contribute its part toward the fund being raised, since the Legislature failed to make an appropriation. At a meeting held here the following finance committee was formed:

John B. Foster, chairman; J. S. Hocker, vice chairman; W. M. Bright, treasurer; W. H. Shanks, secretary.

Stanford—Col. W. G. Welch, J. C. Florence, J. H. Baughman, Dr. J. K. VanArsdale, Adam Pence, Mark Hardin, Dr. W. N. Craig, Harve Helm. J. N. Saunders.

Crab Orchard—W. E. Perkins, Levi Elder, W. H. Cummins, Andrew Buchanan.

Hustonville—Dr. Ed Alcorn, T. L. Carpenter, W. G. Cowan, J. K. Baughman.

A CALL for an election on the courthouse question will appear next issue. The vote will be taken at the November election when it is to be hoped that our people will vote for the building of a new one.

AT the 12th annual session of the Russell Springs Medical Society to be held Aug. 13 and 14, Drs. J. G. Carpenter, Steele Bailey, J. C. Barker, Bertie R. Carpenter and W. L. Lowder, of this county, are down for papers. Col. T. P. Hill, of this place, will speak on "Medical Jurisprudence."

ONE of the features of the Danville fair this year will be the "bucking ring." All persons having horses that can not be ridden at home and desire to have them ridden, will do the association a favor to enter them in the famous bucking ring as they have broncho riders who guarantee to ride the worst horse in 10 counties.

ALL preparations are about completed for the Crab Orchard Fair which begins next Wednesday and continues four days. The grounds and track are in the very pink of condition and nothing has been left undone that would add to the pleasure or comfort of the crowds that will attend. All of the races will fill and show stock will be there world without end.
